HARVEST HOUSES . . .

Thirty-one years ago, 1978, S. Jeanne A. Brendel, O.P., Sisters of St. Dominic of Amityville recognized the critical lack of affordable housing options for the elderly. Thus began HARVEST HOUSES, a model that offers to seniors the opportunity to live in the continuity of family, to choose an environment that is "home away from home". Today, we are proud that we are a first in affordable, shared-housing for elderly on Long Island. Today HARVEST HOUSES reflect a major step toward new alternatives for the elderly. Today we rejoice in the presence of three HARVEST HOUSES on Long Island offering new hope to our elders. But celebrating cannot leave us complacent. Today the challenge is even greater than in 1978. Your support enables us to continue to offer meaningful housing alternatives to our elders.
